- You made it through summer!!
- If you want to send pics to Gillian (of Summer 2017 fun) - send them in and she'll make a slideshow to send out
- Loutit had 300 more kids sign up this summer than last year - maybe because they had a sign up a week earlier?
- Digital sign up - engage patron - better for smaller libraries - no bad feedback
- One library had both digital and physical sign up - only had a couple families use digital
- Arizona state library system - free but you have to set up a separate server
- Eric Yager from Muskegon - new magician - he was new but pretty good
- Martina Han - REALLY EXPENSIVE but only ok

Workshop in November

- performers are all set,
- we are now a budget line item with Lakeland
  - Getting funding from continuing education part of budget
  - 1200 $$ allocated for us - for Nov. YS meeting + other funds for other things
  - We can utilize that funding for youth oriented programs (webinars, speakers) - under continuing ed committee
  - Our money is now going into the Lakeland general fund -- it no longer returns directly to us

Spring Institute Ideas

- If you have any ideas for breakout, key note speaker (affordable, interesting or new!), or just plain old fun stuff, email MIKE!!
- In GR at Eberhard Center
- Planning a dine around
- Trivia luncheon

Storywalk questions

- Good reception?
- Introduced it as a summer reading promo
- Replaced it monthly
- Stand Construction
  - Barking dog exhibits - purchased pre-made sets
  - Corrugated plastic board and sign poles
- Daily poop patrol in the summer - wipe them down - check for sun damage and water damage
- No vandalizing issues -
- 2 copies of every book
- In general around 20 stands (2 pages per stand)
